Synod 2021 2023

The Synodal Journey in Ossory

What is the Synodal Journey?

Put simply, it's our listening to each other. All our voices make the parish. If we listen carefully to each other we believe we will hear what the Holy Spirit wants us to hear at this time.

What questions will start the conversations?

The base questions for these conversations are:

When you think about Church, in your experience, what brings sadness or disappointment?

From these more will emerge...

Where will these conversations take place?

Throughout all of our Diocese (venues will be publicised); online through our website; and in as many groups and places as is possible - because every voice counts.

Prayer

*Wisdom that only years can bring
Has brought contentment and acceptance
Of the limitations of my being.
Frustration and annoyance at last
Have ceded to reality,
imagination and memory.
Even, intellect itself are powerless to comprehend my God for,
For, now I know
I cannot know except through learned ignorance.
Waiting in patience for His good pleasure,
is the surest way to penetrate the vast untrodden land love without end.*

Gabriel O'Brien O.Carm.
